Hi Stephen

Thank you for your request as below.

I have queried the Police National Intelligence Application (NIA) searching your name and that of the charity "animal evac".

I cannot find any entries relating to either yourself or the named charity with regards to incidents during the recent fires in Nelson.

If you have any questions please contact the writer by return email

Can you supply any documentation that substantiates this, and any information held by police during this response that contains my name or the charity "animal evac".
